

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1983 - STEMMELER'S WHITE COACH INN

(Menu: Chicken, rice, peas and carrots, salad)

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. The summer cooking schedule was handed out. The first meeting is July 5. Head cook is Jack Vanderspool, with Casey, Fenske, and Suttmiller as cook's helpers. It will be a dandy.
2. Members are reminded of the Rotary Brewers night at County Stadium on June 10.
3. Mention was made of some confusion on golf tournaments. June 30 is the District 627 tournament at South Hills, Racine. In addition, there is a more local tri-club tournament made up of golfers from Thiensville-Mequon, Cedarburg-Grafton, and Port Washington Rotary Clubs. More details about the Tri-Club tournament will be forthcoming.
4. BUSINESS MEETING - Next week, June 14. This is the opportunity for all members to experience "participatory democracy" in voicing suggestions and concerns about club affairs. Officers and directors welcome and encourage member input on club business.

PROGRAM:

Tom Brown, of Milwaukee North Shore Club, presented a program explaining the St. Francis Children's Learning and Activity Center. The program discussed the history of the Center and the need for funds. The Milwaukee North Shore Club has donated proceeds from a rummage-craft sale to the Center. Last year it was $3000; this year's goal is $5000. This year's sale is June 11 at Cardinal Stritch College.

PHILOSOPHICAL WISDOM: An Eastern monarch once charged his wise men to invent an aphorism which would be true and appropriate at all times and in all situations. Their answer was, "And this, too, shall pass away."

SEE YOU AT ROTARY!

TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1983 - Stemmeler's White Coach Inn

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Over 16,000 from 103 countries attended the R.I. Convention in Toronto.
2. No meeting at Mitchell Field on June 29.
3. Twenty-five T-M Rotarians attended Rotary Brewer night.
4. Changing of the Guard meeting is June 28 at Stemmeler's.
5. Donated items needed for Brat Fry. Contact Stan Smith.

PROGRAM: BUSINESS MEETING

Discussion covered the waterfront. Among the subjects were: 1) The T-M Rotary Club needs a movie projector. We should not have to beg, borrow, or steal every time we need one. 2) Summer cooking schedules were discussed with reminders about procedure, rounding up our gear, do-it-yourself, etc. 3) Lax attendance was discussed along with possible dropping of members who failed to meet requirements. 4) Incentives for make-ups resulted in passage of a motion to reward make-ups to the tune of $2.00 each. 5) Discussion was had on the necessity for raising our dues.

VISITING ROTARIANS:

Ralph Wrezic of Milwaukee North Shore; Glenn Dye and Bill Wernecke of Cedarburg-Grafton; and Jim Minucci of Brookfield.

OTHER GUESTS:

Everett Johnson, guest of Bill Kachel; and Cliff Duffy, guest of Warren Sass.

MISSING ROTARIANS:

Casey, Clarke, Colburn, Eldridge, Fenske, Fromm, Gibb, Geer, Gruenwald, Hiltgen, Kurth, Lind, Payer I, Smith, Vanderspool, Walenton, Wiese, Witte.

MAKE-UPS:

T. Egelhoff, Payerl, Gibb, Kellner, Vanderspool, Sommer, Reuter, Kiraly, Hatzinger, Starobin, Fischer, Custer, Eldridge.

TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 1983 - Stemmeler's White Coach Inn

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. T-M Rotary attendance was 28th last month (out of 50).
2. T-M Rotary Club received a nice "thank you" letter from the Weyenberg Library Foundation re: $1000 donation.
3. Committee assignments for 1983-84 were handed out.

PROGRAM:

Marilyn and Robert Jacobs presented a slide program (with comments) on their trip to Israel. The trip was in conjunction with a visit to see their daughter who was studying there. The visit was during Easter and Passover, a holiday time. The club was treated to pictures of old Jerusalem; the new city and buildings; the various ethnic communities within the city; Jewish, Christian, and Moslem religious buildings and sites; rural areas; historic sites; etc. An impressive program, well presented.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1983 - Stemmeler's White Coach Inn (evening)

(Menu: Steak, baked potato, salad, sundae, plus pre-meal snacks)

PROGRAM:

This was the evening for Rotary Anns to be guests as the 1982-83 officers were replaced by the incoming 1983-84 officers, who are: President, Sandy Custer; Vice-president Dick Sheridan; Secretary, Rich Johannes; Treasurer, Karle Naggs; and Directors, Wally Sommer and Stan Smith. With that lineup, things should be well in hand for the year.

Guest Steve Thiel of Slinger, a Rotary Exchange Program participant, entertained the club and guests with a slide presentation of his stay in Holland. Aided by Sandy Custer's skillful manipulation of the circular slide tray (with crude instruments), the audience enjoyed a tour of Holland.

MISSING ROTARIANS:

Boers, Casey, Clarke, Elbe, Fromm, Geer, Gruenwald, Hollman, Huiras, Kurth, Lind, Meer, Moriarty, Oswald, Starobin, Steffen, Suttmiller, Walenton, Witte.

MAKE-UPS:

Kellner (2), Eldredge, Steffen.

NOTICE:

During the summer outdoor meetings, ending September 27, there will be no regular formal program. An exception would be the District Governor's visit if it should be on his schedule.
