

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1983 - At Plautz Plaza

(Menu: Broiled tenderloin, salad, coffee, bread, etc.)

Head chef, Jack Vanderspool, aided and abetted by Fenske, Spella and Suttmiller served up a tenderloin delight just the way we like it.

Next week, head chef Harry Schmit and his crew will treat us to broiled pork chops (thick ones) plus other assorted garnish.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Stan Smith discussed the August 14 Corn Roast and Brat Fry. Salient points:

- 1) The committee needs more prize donations. ANYONE!
- 2) Next week each member will receive a $100 packet of tickets which he is expected to sell or "eat". Returning unsold tickets is a "no-no" according to past practice and current edict.
- 3) Dan Gibb discussed some tentative plans for a corn eating contest, celebrity autographs, etc.

VISITING ROTARIANS:

Bill Yost, Warren Knorr, Art Dahl, Jerry Dickman, Jeff Knorr, Harry Sanders, and Carl Edquist, all of Cedarburg-Grafton; and Scott Haag, of Brookfield.

OTHER GUESTS:

Ted Spella, guest of Harry Schmit; John Kuhn, guest of Ray Reuters Garrett Rolling, guest of Loyal Wells; and Paul Purnell, guest of Jack Vanderspool.

MISSING ROTARIANS:

Bublitz, Burkhardt, Casey, Clarke, G. Egelhoff, Eldridge, Kellner, Lind, Moriarty, Starobin, Thompto.

MAKE-UPS: Gruenwald (5)

INTERESTING THOUGHT: The average man's ambition these days is to be able to afford what he's now spending.

SEE YOU AT ROTARY!

TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1983 - Plautz Park Plaza

This was the day for pork chops - thick, brown, and juicy. This gourmet delight was whipped together by head chef Harry Schmit, assisted by Ted Egelhoff, Pete Hiltgen, Dick McNabb, and Irv Riemer. Gooooood!!!

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. Ted Elbe shared some letters he had written to Sports Illustrated re: lack of coverage for our Milwaukee Bucks.

2. Stan Smith reminded everyone about the Corn and Brat Fry on August 14, and voiced needs and concerns. Tickets were distributed to all members present - ALL to be sold.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1983 - Plautz Park

Barbecued spare ribs this time, with two kinds of potato salad, etc. Bill Kachel, head chef, provided this spread, assisted by Hillman, Spella, and Oswald. Yum!!!

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. Our T-M Rotary attendance has moved up to 16th. But Cedarburg-Grafton is 6th, Milwaukee NW is 3rd, Germantown is 8th, and Slinger is tied for 1st. We have improved but President Custer expects further improvement.

2. On August 11, the new Elmbrook Rotary Club will hold its first official meeting at the Wisconsin Club. They have 26 charter members; they meet on Fridays for breakfast. Rotarians may attend this special kick-off breakfast on Thursday, August 11, at $20 per person. Reservations due to Pres. Custer by August 1.

3. Next week, July 26, there will be a prize drawing for all T-M members who have paid their first $100.00 for Brat Fry tickets. Members can pay at the 26th meeting.

4. Think about items for the auction --- more needed.

5. Dan Gibbs needs a flat-bed semi-trailer to accommodate the corn eating contest. Help him!!!
