

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1985 - Plautz Park

Menu: Barbequed spare ribs, potato salad, fruit salad, etc., conjured up by head chef Chuck Walker who was assisted by Wells, Hertz, and Huiras. It was "finger lickin', lip smack in" good. Several Rotarians were trying to get the barbeque sauce recipe from Chef Walker who didn't seem to know--or more likely feigned ignorance in order to preserve his secret.

NEWS AND COMMENTS:

1. Brat Fry tickets--About 15 members have not turned in their money. There was a veiled threat to publish names.
2. President Dan Gibb is in France. VP Johannes ran a short meeting, with terse comments, asking leading questions for adjournment.
3. Past President Sheridan is on crutches, professing to being the victim of a tennis injury. Dr. Elbe, showing no pity, observed that it would heal.
4. Remember that September 24 is the last outdoor meeting.

VISITING ROTARIANS:

Art Willborn (Menomonee Falls); Virgil Johannes (Milwaukee N/S); Ron Gravelle and Ernie Davis (Cedarburg-Grafton).

OTHER GUESTS: Bill Johannes (Dick Johannes); Mike Sigmund and Kurt McCullough (Don Sigmund).

ABSENT: Boers, both Egelhoffs, Elbe, Eldredge, Flint, Fromm, Garcia, Gibb, Hillman, Hooson, Kubala, Naggs, Powell, Smith, Sommer, Wells. (See secretary if you were actually present.)

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1985 - Plautz Plaza

Menu: A first ever for Rotary!!! Head chef Ted Elbe (he calls himself a coordinator) assisted by Reuter, Kachel, Johannes, and Bolz, treated us to a meal of Polish sausage, sauerkraut and peaches, baked beans, muskmelon, and the trimmings. General consensus at our table predicted that the baked beans prepared by Sue Johannes combined with Frank Bolz's sauerkraut should result in severe symptoms of flatus (excessive gas) for the rest of the day and night; but wasn't it good? Hiltgen went back three times for refills.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: (None)

Last week's comments were terse, but this meeting was more terse. (Or should one say terser?) Some grammarian, help us out. In defense of our vice president, the weather was threatening and sprinkles were falling.

ABSENT T-M ROTARIANS: Behr, Berg, Boers, G. Egelhoff, Flint, Fromm, Gibb, Gruenwald, Hooson, Kellner, both Kurths, Lind, Meer, Mikkelson, Riemer, Riley, Ronzheimer, Ross, Smith, Starobin, Wells, Wiese, Winnemann, Witte.

DID YOU KNOW?

If a Rotarian were to travel the 159 lands of Rotary visiting a different Rotary Club each day, it would take him 59 years. At the end of his journey there would remain thousands of clubs established in the meantime.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1985 - Rotary Pavilion

Wasn't that a meal? Limping head chef, Dick Sheridan, brought in a "ringer" head chef, Ted Egelhoff. Assisted by Paris-trained helpers McNabb, Thompto, Moriarty and Campbell, T-M Rotarians were treated to "top of the round" roast beef, potatoes au gratin, harvest salad, and numerous sundries. Due, no doubt, to some kind of curse, ailing Dick Sheridan brought us, our first outdoor Tuesday rain in two years; but pluck and perseverance prevailed to make it a success.

MORE ABOUT ROTARY:

What is the Paul Harris 711 Club?

This not-for-profit corporation was organized in 1983 to preserve and maintain for all Rotarians Room 711 in the old Unity Building in Chicago -- the place where Rotary was born 80 years ago. A lifetime membership costs $100 (U.S.) and the first 711 Rotarians to join the club qualify as founding members. Some vacancies remain.
