

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, JULY 1, 1986 - Plautz Plaza

Chef Vanderspool, along with Liebscher, Hatzinger, J. Kurth, and Kraiss, served us with broiled beef tenderloin, salad (heavy on cruciferous vegetables) bread, butter, and coffee. It was delicious and many went back for seconds. Maybe this is why women want to join Rotary.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. President Johannes pleaded for help since his treasurer and vice-president both were missing. Dan was there for support.
2. Naggs asked for volunteers to help with the parade. He got them.
3. Custer reminded members about the Brat Fry tickets and the sign-up for jobs. 4. Kachel asked club members to tell him how to vote. Most kept out of politics.

VISITING ROTARIANS

Ralph Wrezic, Bob Cavey, and Virgil Johannes (Milwaukee North Shore); Mal Hepburn, Bob Schroeder and Jerry Pickmann (Cedarburg-Grafton).

OTHER VISITORS

Wayne Otto and Woody Voight (T. Egelhoff); Terry Packer (Berg); Gary Jacobs (father Bob); John Kiraly (Holle).

T-M ROTARIANS MISSING THE ACTION

Densow, Eldredge, Fromm, Kellner, Mikkelson, Oswald, Powell, Reuter, Riemer, Ross, Smith, Sommer, Starobin, Wiese, Winnemann.

WORLD AFFAIRS SEMINAR

On Sunday evening, June 8, 1986, 946 young people were welcomed to the Seminar which was held at UW-Whitewater. Students from all over the U.S. plus 50 other countries spent a week discussing nuclear arms, Central America, and others. Senator Richard G. Lugar (R - Indiana), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee; was the keynote speaker. Later he spent over an hour answering questions from the students.

TUESDAY, JULY 8, 1986 - Plautz Park

Head chef, Ed Behr, assisted by Naggs, Gruenwald and Boers, served up broiled hamburgers in a bun, along with regular potato salad, German potato salad and beans. Several fellows went back for seconds.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. Thanks were extended to Custer, Gibb, Sigmund and Elbe for their assistance with the July 4 parade. Thanks also to Naggs for his job as Rotary chairman.
2. President Johannes mentioned that Rotarian absences were conspicuous on the celebration grounds.
3. Custer is still collecting ticket money. Turn it in!
4. Reuter needs donations for the major prizes. Don't be bashful.
5. Kubala reported on the sign project. Five signs will be put up, but he needs help on places to put them.
6. Elbe stated that we need a Rotary plaque on the "snack shack" at Homestead High School.

ROTARY'S ONE-MILLIONTH MEMBER:

The world's one-millionth Rotarian is Jean-Paul Morval, a member of the Rotary Club of Thionville, Moselle, France. He is a 40 year old industrial engineer. His name was selected in a random drawing from among the names of more than 10,000 Rotarians admitted to Rotary clubs around the world during the week of February 17.

PLATITUDINOUS PREACHMENT:

"It is better to be looked over than overlooked." (Mae West)

TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1986 - Plautz Park

Head chef, Dick Berg, assisted by Oswald, Jacobs, Smith and Oswald's son, Bill, treated us to barbequed chicken breasts, potato salad, fruit salad, and all the trimmings. Several have asked about Dick's recipe for the barbeque sauce. Everyone was happy.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Volunteers are needed to display Brat Fry posters in business places. See Sandy for your posters.
2. Custer reports that everything is in hand for a record-breaking Brat Fry. He thanks those members who have paid for tickets and expects others to pay soon.

RESIGNATION

Mac Powell has resigned from the club due to an office transfer.
