

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1986 - Plautz Plaza

Another gourmet treat, engineered, we suspect, by Sue Johannes, Erna Sommer, etc. Head chef, Dick Johannes, (El-presidente) assisted by Hertz, Kellner, Huiras and Sommer gave us steak shish-ke-bob (with peppers, tomatoes and mushrooms) along with lettuce salad, fruit salad, rolls, beverage --- all topped off with choice of sundaes. Congratulatory comments were heard all around. Dick McNabb, culinary expert, gave it four stars. Now we will see what Bolz and his crew come up with next week.

PLATITUDINOUS PREACHMENT

"After all is said and done, more is said than done."

TUESDAY, AUGUST 12, 1986 - Plautz Park

Frank Bolz rose to the challenge. Assisted by Sommer, Ross, Reuter and Winnemann, he treated us to a meal of baby back spare ribs hitherto unknown to man. Then, strolling from table to table, he plied club members with seconds and thirds. Finally, he topped everything off with Eskimo pie ice cream bars exactly like the ones he was selling at his kitchen on Brat Fry Sunday. The only thing missing was a strolling violinist. It was another four-star meal.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

John Fromm came through for Ladies' Day. Assisted by Thompto, G. Egelhoff, Payerl, and Kachel on coffee, he gave us roast beef, baked potatoes, melon, salad, etc. There were lots of good comments and consensus gave it a four-star rating. El Presidente lamented the absence of ice cream.

SPECIAL MENTION

Once again we were honored and pleased to have our Rotary Anns as special guests at our meeting. They give us dignity, decorum, style and flair that is missing at other meetings. No doubt they like the "no muss, no fuss, walk away" manner of dining, too. Thanks, again, for all your help and support.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 26; 1986 - Thiensville Park

Another four star meal, in spite of adversity in the form of inclement weather. Tom Gullick, with the help of Walker, Holle, Kraiss, and Fischer, treated us to another kind of barbequed spare ribs, along with potato salad, baked beans and more. They claim to have started at 3:00 a.m. A special surprise was the HHS String Quartet which provided appropriate music before, during and after the meal. And still our president screams for ice cream. Someone should check his stock portfolio. Well done, fellows. It is Walker's secret formula for country style spare ribs, and he won't tell.
