

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, July 5, 1988 - Plautz Plaza

Head chef, Dick Berg, assisted by helpers Wiese, Myers, Sass and Hertz served us a sumptuous meal consisting of hamburgers (round ones), cabbage slaw, potato salad (either German or French), sliced tomatoes, slices of onions, mushrooms and cooked onions, pickles, super-size buns, coffee, etc. There was plenty for seconds and some went back. Berg's crew is keeping up the Egelhoff pace, posing a tough act for Loyal Wells and his crew to follow next week.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

2. Dick Johannes, The Enforcer, fined himself $3.00 in honor of the recent birth of his son. The fine was accepted by unanimous acclamation.

ROTARILY YOURS!

TUESDAY, July 12, 1988 - Cooney's Back Yard

This was it. Barbecued spare ribs, Boston baked beans, tossed salad (heavy on crucifers), bread, coffee, and topped off with yummy ice cream bars (with Johannes in mind). Head chef and planner, Loyal Wells, was assisted by Hatzinger on spare ribs, Campbell on beans, Witte on salad and bread, and Lind on coffee and sundries. There were numerous requests for seconds. A four star meal.

TUESDAY, July 19, 1988 - Plautz Park

Frank Bolz did it again. After the July 12 cooking crew managed to steal his spare rib thunder, Frank and his crew came back with broiled tenderloin steaks, baked potatoes, tossed salad (mostly in the chunk), bread, coffee, etc. He was ably assisted by Meer, Mikkelson, Casey, and Huiras. These were not run-of-the-mill steaks, but the best that could be had. It was truly a four star meal. The unanimous consensus at our table was to assign Frank and his crew to permanent cook and KP duty. Maybe we should vote on it, just to be democratic.
