

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, August 2, 1988 - Cooney's Back Yard

Harry Thompto, head chef, and Jacobs, Hinrichs, Custer, Hillman and Liebscher served roast beef sandwiches, baked beans, fruit salad, and sundries, polished off with ice cream. Everyone enjoyed it despite the 100° heat.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. Sobczak handed out Brat Fry questionnaire sheets to be filled out. Discussion will take place next week.
2. Fines - Hertz (on TV), Casey (in Journal), Johannes (in paper).
3. Bolz (Chairman) and Ross, Meer, Sommer, Hatzinger, Wells, Kellner, Vanderspool and Liebscher presented the club $2,250 for perfect May attendance.
4. Discussion was had on next year indoor meetings. A motion was made, seconded, and carried to meet at Boders, beginning September 27.
5. Ted Elbe received a nice "thank you" letter from Luther Haven Retirement Home, appreciating the 15 dozen ears of corn which T-M Rotary donated.

GROUP STUDY EXCHANGE--OUTBOUND TEAM:

District 627 will be sending a 5-member team to Indonesia in the spring of 1989. Past Gov. Joe Looper will be the team leader. The team will consist of non-Rotarian business-professional men ages 25-35. _Our District Governor has requested that each club nominate at least one applicant. Deadline is August 15.

TUESDAY, August 9, 1988 - Rotary Shelter in Thiensville Park

Aaron brought the rain, forcing us to use our back-up quarters in the park. No rain when Smith was president. Don Sigmund, head chef, and his crew of Johannes, Gullick, Sommers and Von Rueden set up shop in the shelter and served us ham steaks, au gratin potatoes, fruit salad, and all the fixin's. Everyone filled up, but bee control wasn't good. The Cedarburg-Grafton contingent (nine strong) ate like horses. It was a successful outing and the cooks are to be complimented on the way they coped with adversity.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. The North Shore Sunrise Club has changed meeting places. They now meet at Pandl's in Bayside, Thursdays at 7:00 a.m.
2. District 627 Governor Howland will meet with our club on September 6, 1988.
3. Lyle Thompson, newest member, was introduced and given materials.
4. Discussion was held on the Brat Fry. Topics included date, format, prizes, tickets, activities, Monday clean-up, prices, finances, emphasis, target groups, promotion, etc. Next year's chairman listened attentively.

SEE YOU AT ROTARY!!

TUESDAY, August 23, 1988 - Plautz Plaza

Head Chef, Jim Kurth, came up with something different. Assisted by Reuter, Gruenwald and Holtz, we were treated to skewered chunks of beef, skewered vegetables and mushrooms, lettuce salad, plus basics and all the trimmings. One might call it a shish-ke-bob delight. The weather cooperated, adding to the enjoyable meal. We must put him on as head chef again.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. District Governor, "Bud" Howland, has been ill. He thanks everyone for the cards wishing him a speedy recovery. He will meet with us on September 6th.
2. Attendance! T-M Rotary ranked 19th last month with 83.6% attendance. We still ranked 6th for the year at 91%. That 100 in May was a big boost.
3. Notice! On September 17th there will be a District Information Seminar at Olympia in Oconomowoc. Aaron hopes for a good turnout from T-M Rotary.
4. Attention Golfers - There will be a Tri-Club Golf Outing. Port Washington is the host club. More later.
5. Connie Pukaite, who accompanied the Alte Kameraden Band to Germany, shared some interesting observations and impressions with us, especially about the position of mayor.

MAKEUPS:

Brown (2), Hinrichs, Ross, Zembrosky.

TUESDAY, August 30, 1988 - Plautz Park

Head Chef, Jack Vanderspool, assisted by Bublitz, Densow, Willems, and son-in-law Dave Wickesberg, served us his annual treat of broiled tenderloin, along with pasta salad, coffee, etc. It was delicious, with no left-overs.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. Remember! Governor "Bud" Howland will be visiting us on September 6th (next week): Aaron expects 100% attendance that day. Elbe will be head cook, so look forward to a fish fry.
2. Notice! September 13th is the date for spouses to be our guests at the meeting. Be sure you let them know. Gibb will be the head cook, so expect something fancy.
3. Tri-District Golf Outing is Monday, September 12th, at The Squires Country Club, north of Port Washington. Port Washington is the host club. Joe Haen can sign you up. He needs golfers.
4. Notice! First indoor meeting for 1988-89 is September 27th at Boders.
5. John Riley announced an information meeting for the Rotary Student Exchange Program next year. It is September 19, 7:00-9:00 p.m. at Homestead. Interested students and parents should come. Students must be 16 by November 1, and under 18 by July 1, of the year of the outbound exchange.. For more info call John Riley (242-2042) at 732 Grand Ave., Thiensville.
