

THIENSVILLE - MEQUON

ROTARIAN

TUESDAY, September 6, 1988 - Plautz Plaza

Ted Elbe's annual fish fry was a roaring success. Assisted by a large crew made up of Ross, Wells, Bolz, Worzella, Gibb and Naggs, the club was treated to an all-you-can-eat spread of perch and bluegills, augmented by cabbage salad and all the trimmings plus dessert in the form of Eskimo Pie.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. Robert Sobczak is holding a meeting at his home on September 14th to discuss the 1989 Brat Fry. Anyone is invited. Call 242-3962 for details. He welcomes input.
2. David O'Connor, newest member, was introduced to the club.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE: District Governor, "Bud" Howland, shared a few thoughts about Rotary, mainly centered on membership, attendance and Polio Plus. Membership is always a concern and effort, differing from other organizations with the concept of classifications giving maximum community representation. He hopes we are not missing good people because other organizations will get them if we relax our efforts. Attendance also receives much attention because it brings acquaintance, involvement, etc. District 627 has passed the $1,000,000 mark for Polio Plus, and R.I. has more than doubled its original goal of $120,000,000. Governor "Bud" said our club 'is on a roll.'

VISITING ROTARIANS: Ed Vaughn (Ft. Lauderdale); Jim Wiensch (Milwaukee); Richard Stone (Milwaukee NS); John Detric and Ron Lauret (West Bend); John Alston and Bob Biegert (Cedarburg/Grafton).

OTHER GUESTS: Brett Naggs (Karle); Dr. Sherwin (Jacobs); Roger Stevenson (area rep).

ABSENT T-M ROTARIANS: Boers, Egelhoff, Fromm, Gullick, B. Kurth, Puhl, Smith, Sobczak, Sommer, Thompto, Wiese, Wilke, Winnemann.

TUESDAY, September 13, 1988 - Cooney's Back Yard (Spouse Day)

Dan Gibb, head honcho, recruited a double-strength cooking crew for the occasion. Assisted by Egelhoff on roast beef, Hatzinger and Meer on broiled chicken, Casey on peaches, Pukaite and Riley on tomatoes, Elbe on potatoes, Heyer on coffee, and Liebscher on tables, a bountiful buffet was enjoyed by all. Because they are so good at it, they were appointed to do the same next year. As the ad says, they are very good at what they do.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. Date Change--the Rotary Youth Exchange Committee informational meeting has been changed to September 22, 7:00-9:00 p.m., at Homestead. Anyone interested in studying abroad is invited. This includes both students and their parents.
2. Golf Tournament Results: T-M Rotary teams finished first and third. The competition was so intense that one of our newest members, Lyle Thompson, broke his ankle. Best wishes, Lyle.
3. Fine--$5.00 on Greg Custer for buzzing Thiensville on Saturday. He should watch out for the FAA.
