THIENSVILLE – MEQUON

TUESDAY, July 3, 1990 - Thiensville Park - Second Outdoor Meeting of 1990

COOKING CREW (Mess Management):

Frank Bolz (Head Chef) was ably assisted by Elbe, Sommers, and Egelhoff. Their specialty was broiled steak, with baked potatoes, tossed salad, and all the rest. It was good and seconds were available. They continued the standard of excellence which was set by Egelhoff at the first meeting. Frank Bolz likes to use the grill, and he is scheduled again for August 14.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. In the absence of the president and VP, past president Hertz conducted the meeting. The DJ was up 12, with temperature at 95°.
2. Thank you notes were received from a Homestead student for our sponsorship at the World Affairs Seminar; and from Alice at the Weyenberg Library in appreciation of our annual $1000 support.
3. Hertz declared that we had a good Changing of the Guard party, and that Fun Before the Fourth went very well with Becky Fisher doing an excellent job with the Fun Run of 180 participants.
4. Russ Brown talked about ticket sales, the need for Saturday salesmen and his expectation of $800-$1,200 per Saturday.
5. Tom Peterson explained what was to happen at the July 22 Fund Raiser (Hawaiian Heat). WORK SCHEDULES WERE MAILED OUT.
6. Custer thanked all who showed up for the corn popping bee.

Tuesday, July 31, 1990 - Thiensville Park - Sixth Outdoor Meeting of 1990

Head chef, Pete Hiltgen, assisted by Thompto, Egelhoff, Naggs, Wiese, Gruenwald, Elbe, et al treated us to roast corn, beautiful big bratwursts, fruit salad, with garnish and much more. It was a perfect picnic lunch. We could use them on permanent KP.

ANNOUNCEMENTS, NEWS AND NOTES:

1. Bill Ross (our Dick Tracy) has sleuthed out our collection of Rotary Flags, which it turns out were stashed away at Stemmeler's for the past few years. Bill cleaned them up and gave us a comprehensive report on the flags from all over the world.
2. The club thanked Shelby Dixon, music director at Homestead, for the numerous contributions the Homestead music groups have made at Rotary functions. Shelby was presented a $250 check as an expression of club appreciation.
3. Chris McBain, local Boy Scout, addressed the club on the subject of recycling wastes. He talked about problems related to recycling, problems resulting from not doing it, and discussed various alternative methods. He emphasized the huge amount of waste we must deal with and the need for community awareness. Specifically, he covered four categories of waste: newspapers, aluminum, plastics, and glass. He left us with the admonition that we should leave this environment in better shape than we found it.
